Bulls Raring to Go in 2011

Entering the second year of the Jeff Quinn-led University at Buffalo football program, the Bulls look to get back to competing at a high level this season. "We have been focusing our attention on competing for the Mid-American Conference championship," said Quinn. "We experienced things on the field last year that were uncharacteristic of a winning football team."

Offensively, the Bulls will benefit from returning 23 players, including nine starters to the multiple offense Quinn runs. With a year of his system under their belts, a confident UB offense is eager to prove its explosiveness that it displayed during spring drills and the offensive staff feels its capable of.

Defensively, the Bulls will have to rely on eight new starters in 2011, as only three starters return from a group that was one of the best in UB's Division I history. However, UB has a stable of young defenders ready to make an impact on the program.

Quinn added some veteran offensive coaches to his staff, bringing in a trio of coaches that have experienced tremendous success at both the collegiate and NFL ranks, in Alex Wood (offensive coordinator/wide receivers), Don Patterson (quarterbacks) and Matt Simon (running backs). In addition, the team has had a tremendous off-field performance this summer with a focus on being conditioned to play a high-tempo style of football that can win consistently at the line of scrimmage.

To follow is a position-by-position look at the 2011 Bulls.

QUARTERBACKS

A critical position on any football team, it most certainly is the case for the Bulls who have a number of talented young men ready to compete for the triggerman duties.

Jerry Davis started the season's first six games before true freshman Alex Zordich took the controls for four games before suffering a rib injury that ended his season, setting the stage for Davis to return for the final two and a half games.

Davis had some bright moments, completing 142-of-298 passes for 1,753 yards and 16 touchdowns. However, the Fresno, CA native also threw 16 interceptions. He made significant improvements this spring to be a much more consistent signal-caller.

Davis throws the deep ball extremely well as evidenced by several big-play scores, including an 81-yard strike at Northern Illinois and a 60-yard bomb at Connecticut. The staff expects him to continue to improve his overall mechanics and be a better leader.

Zordich, meanwhile, is a strong-armed, physical athlete who showed plenty of mettle in taking over the offense as a true freshmen and showed glimpses of being an outstanding quarterback.

Zordich threw for 428 yards and a score and ran for two other touchdowns while getting starts against bowl-bound Temple, Ohio and MAC champion Miami. He is a strong runner and a fierce competitor. His football pedigree – his father Mike was an All-American at Penn State and Pro Bowl performer in the NFL and current coach for the Philadelphia Eagles – toughness and leadership skills have made an impression on the staff and his teammates.

Chazz Anderson may be a new name to Bulls fans, but not to Quinn. Anderson transferred to Buffalo from Cincinnati where he previously played for Quinn. He saw action in all three of his seasons with the Bearcats, making a pair of winning starts during UC's 2008 Big East championship season. In his career, he has completed 74-of-126 passes (58.7%) for 729 yards, three touchdowns and four interceptions. Last season he completed 23-of-45 passes for 206 yards while rushing 19 times for 80 yards. Anderson has one year of eligibility and because of NCAA rules regarding post-graduate transfers, he can play this fall.

Cory Jorgensen returns from a shoulder injury and will provide added depth. He is a tremendous competitor and is expected to make an impact on special teams.

Quinn has also brought in a pair of freshman quarterbacks. Joining Buffalo in the fall will be Tony Daniel and Joe Licata. Daniel is a strong-armed quarterback who helped his team to a regional title and holds the school record for career passing yards and passing completions in a season.

Licata is the most decorated quarterback in WNY history, setting the all-time record with 87 career touchdown passes, including 36 in his junior season. As a senior, he completed 64% of his passes (176-of-276) for 2,573 yards and 34 touchdowns and won the Connolly Cup, emblematic of WNY's top player.

Quinn comments: "It's open competition at the quarterback position and we expect a highly competitive battle that will produce a quarterback ready to lead our football team. Chazz brings a welcome dimension to our team and offense. Anderson, Davis and Zordich are going to have an edge in experience and whoever displays the best knowledge, preparedness and judgement will become the starter."

RUNNING BACKS

The Bulls lack of consistent success in the running game, led to an increased focus in the offseason by the coaching staff, a concept that will clearly need better offensive line production as well. The coaching staff likes the mix of players they have returning and new offensive coordinator Wood and Quinn are excited to see how the running attack looks this fall.

Sophomore Branden Oliver and junior Jeffvon Gill got the bulk of the carries last season and have different running styles. Oliver is an elusive and strong back at 5-8 and nearly 200 pounds, who has the ability to make people miss, has good hands out of the backfield and is assignment sound play in and play out.

Gill is the biggest of the Bulls' backs at 6-0, 219, and led the team by averaging 4.3 yards per carry last season. He has displayed a nice burst and power in his first two seasons.

The staff is excited to see what highly-touted redshirt freshman James Potts will bring to the mix. Potts has breakaway speed and has bulked up since arriving at UB after choosing the Bulls over scholarship offers from Big Ten and ACC programs. Brandon Murie, who was a pleasant surprise this spring, adds depth and excels at special teams.

Quinn comments: "We are seeking balance in our offensive attack and running the ball is a critical factor in achieving that balance. It will come down to Oliver, Gill and Potts and whoever is the best prepared and most productive will get the majority of playing time. Our running backs must be dynamic runners, they have to protect our quarterback and be a threat in our passing game. The offensive line is a big part of this, but our running backs must put the linemen on their blocks by making the right reads. It comes down to the fundamentals of football, take great care of the ball and be assignment sound. The running back position is a real critical spot for us, we need to get back to moving the ball on the ground."

WIDE RECEIVERS

The Bulls showed good productivity in the passing game last season and this position has the opportunity to shine in 2011 as every receiver who caught a pass last year returns.

Alex Neutz

Marcus Rivers

Buffalo returns their top five receivers from a year ago – who combined to make 147 receptions and catch 17 touchdowns – in their second year in the spread. Leading the way are a pair of seniors, Marcus Rivers and Terrell Jackson. Rivers led Buffalo with 50 receptions for 690 yards (13.8 ypc) and tied for the team lead with five touchdown receptions. At 6-5, 218 pounds he has size that can create mismatches and had stretches of last season where he was dominant. His 81-yard catch and run at Northern Illinois displayed his rare blend of size and speed.

Jackson, meanwhile, is an all-everything player who registered 43 receptions for 397 yards and three touchdowns while also being named first-team All-MAC as a returner. Jackson led the conference by averaging 16.7 yards per punt return. A threat at both the intermediate and deep levels, Jackson is one of UB's most consistent performers.

Sophomore Alex Neutz emerged late in the season to claim offensive team MVP honors. He finished the season with a team-high 15.9 yards per catch average while snaring 26 passes for 414 yards and four scores. Neutz made several circus catches in his freshman season and has the ability, at 6-3, to go above defenders to make spectacular grabs.

Nobody made more of his opportunities than senior Ed Young, who found himself in the end zone once every four times he caught the ball. Young finished with 20 receptions for 194 yards and tied for the team lead with five TD catches.

Sophomore Fred Lee (eight catches, 82 yards) and junior Saron Hood (4 catches, 33 yards) provide excellent veteran depth and Lee has the athletic abilities to also emerge this year.

Three other players that expect to compete for playing time this fall are redshirt freshmen Devon Hughes, Cordero Dixon and Rudy Johnson, who has converted from quarterback. All three have demonstrated solid ball skills and continue to develop for their opportunity to make an impact on the UB offense and special teams.

Quinn comments: "We have a solid unit of wide receivers who have playmaking ability. Our system has the capability for us to be in five wide receivers all the way to one receiver. We will be very specific in terms of creating those matchups. Neutz was the MVP of the offense last year and Terrell, Marcus, Eddie and Fred are all very talented players who need to take advantage of their scoring capabilities. Offensively, this is a unit of strength for us as we have three senior wide receivers who I expect their leadership to emerge both on and off the field."

TIGHT ENDS

Buffalo graduated its starter but three of the four returnees – Aaron Connacher, Jake Reeder and Jimmy Gordon – saw significant game action in 2010. The fourth, Alex Dennison, has made a full commitment to the tight end spot from quarterback and adds another weapon to the offense.

Reeder was emerging early in the season, making five catches for 52 yards, when an injury slowed his progress. Connacher is the biggest of the group, and a solid blocker, who also displays good hands.

Gordon waited his turn last season as a redshirt frosh, but emerged late in the year due to injuries to post five catches for 54 yards. In all, Reeder, Gordon and Connacher combined to make 13 catches for 141 yards, a healthy 10.8 yard per catch average.

Quinn comments: "Our focus is to find the type of player that can be both an attached and detached tight end. Then we need to find another guy that can play the "H" back position. All of our tight ends have a great passion for the game so I know that this group will add to the success of our offense. Overall we have added more depth and greater experience at this position than we did a year ago."

Matt Ostrowski

OFFENSIVE LINE

The Bulls have a nice mix of both young and veteran skill players, the success of the offense will no doubt hinge on improved play from an offensive line from this unit.
This unit made the most improvement on the entire team this spring. Buffalo's coaching staff is intent on finding better balance between run and pass and they will rely on an offensive line that has several season veterans and a number of players who have a chance to add quality depth.

Two seniors return in two-year starters Josh Violanti and Matt Ostrowski and their senior leadership will be heavily counted on.

Two other starters return in junior Graham Whinery, who gives great flexibility as he can play, guard, center and even tackle, and sophomore tackle Pat Wilson, an excellent athlete, who the coaching staff believes can mature into an outstanding left tackle. Another player who has seen significant time, Gokhan Ozkan, is expected to compete for one of the starting five spots. Sophomore Jasen Carlson, an All-WNY product, was productive as a true freshman and can play both center and guard and is very mature physically.

The coaching staff was able to get a look at several new faces in the spring and came away excited by the future of redshirt freshmen Andre Davis and Jake Silas as well as true freshmen Dillon Guy and Gabriel Barbe, two Canadians who entered UB in January. In addition, Anthony Bartholomew and Jeff Veinotte figure to give UB added depth.

Quinn Comments: "I expect the size, strength and explosiveness of this group will be translated onto the field this fall. The focus from year one to year two is the fact that we need to be more consistent with our effort in getting into our blocks, sustaining our blocks and finishing to the echo of the whistle – all of these things will allow us to control the line of scrimmage. We have a hole to replace in Peter Bittner, a four-year starter who was as solid as anyone in the MAC. Losing him to graduation is going to have to be absorbed by our veteran players. This group made tremendous strides in the spring and have put in the time, dedication and effort to potentially be the strength of this offense."

DEFENSE

DEFENSIVE LINE

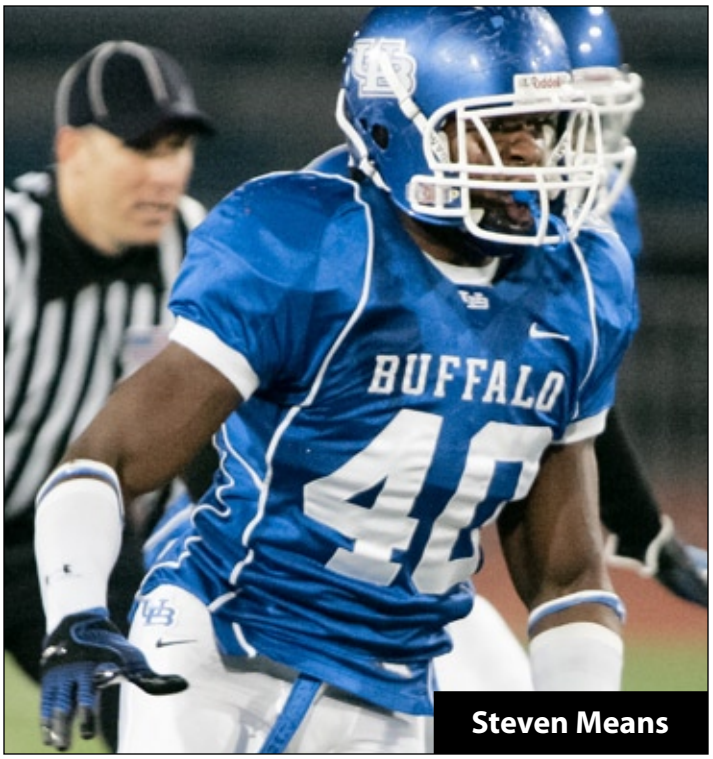
In the Bulls 3-4 defense, the defensive line will reload a bit with the graduation of senior starters Jerry Housey and Anel Montanez. However, Quinn and his defensive coordinator William Inge, like the mix of youth and veterans that will compete for playing time. Quinn acknowledges that he and Inge will rely heavily on their front seven to allow for the transition from losing five senior defensive backs to graduation.

It starts with two-year starting defensive end Steven Means. The Grover Cleveland product continues to emerge as one of the MAC's best defensive ends, registering 50 tackles last season to go along with 8.5 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks, while forcing two fumbles and recovering two others. Means, when combined with outside linebacker Khalil Mack, formed a dominating one-two punch for offensive lines to try to slow down. Means has 9.5 quarterback sacks in his first two seasons.

Senior nose guard Richie Smith seems poised for a breakout year. Smith possesses excellent size and is also very nimble on his feet. In regular duty last year, the Pennsylvania native registered 24 tackles, including 2.5 for losses. Another senior, Gordon DuBois, will also look to crack the starting lineup at defensive end after recording a half-sack and an interception return for a score at Northern Illinois last year. JUCO transfer Wyatt Cahill, who enrolled in January, adds solid depth with the ability to play both inside and out.

The coaching staff is very excited about emerging youngsters like Colby Way, Kristjan Sokoli and Dalton Barksdale, who saw significant action in the spring to continue their growth. Way saw action in 11 games as a true freshman, making nine tackles and playing a valuable role on special teams, while Barksdale is a good athlete with strong football bloodlines. His older brother Joseph was an All-SEC selection at LSU who was drafted in the third round by the Oakland Raiders. Sokoli has excellent size and a high motor.

Quinn Comments: "It's a good mixture, we have eight guys graduating from the defensive side and I feel like our front seven will really give us the stability we need on the defensive side of the ball. We have to make sure our back end is supported… they have to control the line of scrimmage and put pressure on the quarterback and they are fully capable of doing that. Even though we lose a few guys, Steven Means has seen a lot of playing time and has some great football ahead of him. DuBois has done a nice job and we should expect a lot of things out of Richie Smith this year…he is very reliable. Wyatt Cahill has come in with a good understanding of what we are trying to do on defense and there are a lot of great things in store for Way, Sokoli and Barksdale."



Steven Means

Khalil Mack

LINEBACKERS

This unit has great experience and productivity in its outside linebackers but must replace starting inside linebackers Justin

Josh Copeland

Winters and Raphael Akobundu from last year.

When both were healthy last year, Khalil Mack and Jaleel Verser formed a two-man wrecking crew at outside linebacker and Inge looks forward to having them together again this fall. Mack made several national All-Freshmen teams with a tremendous breakout season.

The Fort Pierce, FL native was simply unblockable at times, making a plethora of big plays, including a team-leading 14.5 tackles for loss and 10 pass breakups. Mack finished with 68 tackles (40 solos) while adding 4.5 sacks, eight quarterback hurries and two forced fumbles.

Last season Verser showed flashes of the potential that the coaching staff has seen in him. At 6-6 and nearly 250 pounds, Verser creates mismatches and had 14 tackles, two for losses, a sack and a pair of pass breakups in limited duty last year.

Senior John Syty, who was co-special teams player of the year, will no doubt be in the mix for a starting slot, having played both inside and outside in his career. The staff is happy to have Scott Pettigrew back from an injury that cost him last season. The redshirt junior started most of his first two seasons and had 55 tackles and three fumble recoveries in 2009.

On the inside, senior Fred Branch will get a look in camp. Branch, when healthy, has given UB good depth, including making 20 tackles last year.

Junior Dalonte Wallace also gives the Bulls good athleticism and experience on the outside. Mark Richardson should also be in the hunt at inside backer, while redshirt freshman Lee Skinner and Kendall Roberson also figure to be in the mix.

Quinn Comments: "Mack and Verser are dynamic players. They are big, strong and explosive players that should give us a lot of mismatches. Several players stepped up in the spring to get us solidified on the inside and we have great depth and flexibility at outside linebacker. Syty is capable of playing multiple positions and that helps us depth-wise. We are looking forward to seeing our young guys mature and compete to get on the field."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

No team in the country was likely more ravaged by graduation to its defensive backfield than the Bulls. UB lost All-MAC safeties Davonte Shannon and Domonic Cook as well as three-year starting cornerback Josh Thomas, UB's best cover corner, who was drafted in the fifth round by the Dallas Cowboys.

Thus the Bulls will rely on some emerging players on the back end in 2011. Heading into preseason camp the only returning player who saw any significant action last season is sophomore Carlos Lammons. A cornerback, he played in 10 games last year with 19 tackles and a pass breakup.

The Bulls look to be in solid shape at the safety spot where senior Josh Copeland was among the most impressive players in spring drills. The Ohio native appears ready to have a big senior year while moving from linebacker to his high school position of safety.

Also competing for cornerback spots will be senior Joe Petit, who has been a solid backup throughout his career, sophomore Najja Johnson, who saw action last year and redshirt freshmen Cortney Lester – who had an outstanding spring. All of these players possess good speed and pedigree, coming from excellent high school programs. Dwellie Striggles will also get a look during camp.

Quinn has moved Lester and former All-WNY performer Adam Redden, who both appeared ready to contribute at wide receiver this year, to the defensive backfield to add competition and depth.

At safety, UB may have found its next standout in sophomore Okoye Houston, who played as a true frosh and looked very comfortable when pressed into service. The South Carolina native made 15 tackles, including one for loss, in his first season. Houston and junior Isaac Baugh – co-special teams player of the year in 2010 – along with Copeland expect to man the starting safety positions. Senior Alan Hayes and redshirt frosh Whitney Sherry add depth. All of these players will also be crucial to UB's special teams as well.

The Bulls staff expects that one of several talented incoming freshmen could make an impression this fall.

Quinn comments: "This year's group will have to continue to seize the opportunities that are open as we saw in the spring. We wanted to move the most talented guys we have to positions where they can help us…that's why Redden and Lester give us the best chance to be successful back there. Josh Copeland really stepped up his play and leadership this spring and we need that from him and others. We are young, but we feel good about the talent level and competitiveness of our young men in the defensive backfield."

SPECIAL TEAMS

Senior Peter Fardon will compete to be the Bulls' starting punter and placekicker. A major contributor and team leader throughout his career, Fardon has 41 punts downed inside the 20-yard line in his career. He served as the team's placekicker during spring drills and showed good range. He will compete for the starting role with incoming freshman Patrick Clarke.

Senior Jacob Schum, shook off some early-season inconsistency, and averaged 38.5 yards per punt, including 13 fair catches and 13 inside the 20.

The Bulls excelled in the return game last season and expect that to be a unit that could produce scores this year. Senior Terrell Jackson was named first-team All-MAC after ranking among the national leaders at 16.7 yards per punt return, a figure that led the MAC. He also averaged nearly 20 yards per return on kickoffs.

Buffalo also returns sophomore Tim Krantz, who serves as the primary long snapper, while Schum expects to take on the holding duties.

Quinn Comments: "I like where we are with special teams, as we bring back the majority of our key guys. Fardon and Schum will handle the punting duties again and Fardon has worked extremely hard at taking on the placekicking role. He will be evaluated for that position along with incoming signee Patrick Clarke. We did a nice job in our coverage teams last year and I expect our return game to be even more explosive this year. In order for us to compete for a MAC Championship this year our entire team's focus must be on assisting and developing each of our special team units."

Terrell Jackson

Peter Fardon

Head Coach Jeff Quinn

Jeff Quinn begins his second season at the helm of the University at Buffalo football program. The Bulls finished 2-10 in his first season, with a 1-7 mark in MAC play. Despite the record, the Bulls boasted one of their best defenses in their Division I history in 2010 as defensive backs Davonte Shannon and Domonic Cook earned All-MAC First Team honors, while linebacker Khalil Mack was named to Phil Steele's 2010 Postseason All-Freshman Team.

Quinn was introduced as the 24th head coach in the history of the University at Buffalo football program by Director of Athletics Warde Manuel on Dec. 22.

Quinn has produced record-breaking offenses throughout his 27-year college coaching tenure and has won conference and national championships at his last three stops, including five conference crowns in the past eight seasons.

Said University President John B. Simpson, "I am very pleased that Jeff Quinn will be joining the University at Buffalo. His extensive coaching experience and proven leadership skills make him a great choice as our program continues to gain national stature. From my conversations with Jeff, I know that he shares UB's institutional commitment to excellence and that he will work hard to help our student-athletes succeed in the classroom as well as on the playing field.

"I commend Warde Manuel for assembling a strong, competitive pool of candidates, and I enthusiastically endorse his choice of Jeff Quinn as UB's next head football coach," said Simpson.

"I am elated to welcome Coach Quinn to Buffalo and look forward to the continued growth of our program under his leadership," said Manuel. "We have proven that this program can win championships and with Coach Quinn's pedigree and track record of success, that should become an annual expectation for our football team.

"I believe that we have hired one of the sharpest offensive minds in all of college football and someone who will bring great excitement to our program," said Manuel. "In addition, Coach Quinn has proven himself as an outstanding recruiter both nationally and within the Mid-American Conference. He has coached and won at every level and truly cares about the development of student-athletes as young men and football players. For all these reasons and more, I am anxious to see what the next chapter of UB football brings."

As offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Cincinnati for the past three seasons, Quinn has helped the Bearcats compile a 33-6 record, including a 12-0 record this year and a national No. 4 ranking heading into the Sugar Bowl meeting with defending national champion Florida.

Quinn was named one of five finalists for the 2009 Broyles Award, which is given to the nation's top assistant coach. Unranked in preseason polls, Cincinnati's undefeated regular season catapulted the Bearcats to No. 3 in the BCS standings and earned them an invitation to the Allstate Sugar Bowl, the school's second consecutive BCS game. UC set numerous school records in 2009, including those for wins (12), road wins (6), consecutive regular season wins (18), points (495), passing yards (3,844), fewest fumbles (10) and fewest turnovers (10).

Behind Quinn's offensive line, the Bearcats had an individual top the 100-yard plateau in six of the last eight games and eight out of 12 games overall. UC has topped 200-yards rushing on three occasions and has set the school record for points and touchdowns. Offensive tackle Jeff Linkenbach was a midseason selection to the SI.com all-America squad.

UC led the nation in passing efficiency (166.19) despite using five different quarterbacks through the course of the season. The Bearcats ranked sixth in passing offense (320.3), scoring offense (39.8), and total offense (464.3) and 10th in sacks allowed (0.9) behind Quinn's coordination of the offense.

Eleven UC student-athletes were honored as all-BIG EAST selections, including four out of Quinn's five starting offensive linemen. Chris Jurek (1st), Alex Hoffman (2nd), Jason Kelce (2nd), and Linkenbach (2nd) earned all-BIG EAST honors in 2009.

No stranger to the Mid-American Conference and its recruiting footprint, Quinn served as associate head coach and offensive coordinator at Central Michigan prior to his stint at Cincinnati and helped lead the Chippewas to the 2006 MAC title. He served as interim head coach for Central Michigan's 31-14 victory over Middle Tennessee in the 2006 Motor City Bowl prior to joining the UC staff.

He arrived at CMU in 2004 after 15 seasons at Grand Valley State. He was part of the staff that led the Lakers to back-to-back national championships in 2002 and 2003. The 2001 Laker offense averaged 600.8 yards and set an NCAA record by averaging 58.4 points per game.

During his career, Quinn has coached 12 offensive linemen who have played in the professional ranks, including first, fourth, fifth, and seventh round NFL Draft choices, as well as 22 players who have earned All-America status. In 2008, Quinn mentored Offensive guard Trevor Canfield, who was an Associated Press Second-Team All-America selection, the first UC offensive lineman to earn a spot on the AP team since Bill Shalosky in 1952.

He is a 1984 graduate of Elmhurst College where he was a two-sport standout in football and wrestling. Quinn was twice named Student-Athlete of the Year at Elmhurst. He was inducted into Elmhurst's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993.

Quinn earned a master of arts degree from DePauw in 1986 and an educational leadership master's degree endorsement from GVSU in 2000.

He and his wife Shannon have two sons, Kyle and Ryan. Kyle serves as the undergraduate student representative to the UC Board of Trustees. Ryan is a wrestler at Central Michigan.

What They Are Saying About Jeff Quinn

"Buffalo has got an experienced, talented and prepared head football coach in Jeff Quinn. He has been very choosy in his desire to be a head football coach and he felt Buffalo was just a great fit. I wish him the best and expect great things at the University at Buffalo from Jeff Quinn."
-Brian Kelly
Head football coach, Notre Dame

"Jeff Quinn was a pivotal part of the tremendous coaching staff built over the years at the University of Cincinnati, and was an important player in the success enjoyed by the UC Bearcats. It is my hope that same magic follows Jeff to the University at Buffalo."
–SUNY Chancellor Nancy L. Zimpher
President of University of Cincinnati (2003-09)

"We have followed Coach Quinn's Cincinnati offense quite closely here in Indianapolis. They have been up-tempo, exciting, and exceptionally productive. I'm certain UB students, alumni and fans will be very happy with the Bulls' squad Coach Quinn will produce."
–Bill Polian
President, Indianapolis Colts

"Jeff Quinn is one the most enthusiastic, passionate football coaches I have ever known. His knowledge of football is second to none and his wide-open brand of football will bring excitement to all UB fans. The other coaches in the MAC will have their hands full preparing for our UB football team."
–Jim McNally
UB Class of '62
Long-time NFL offensive line coach

Alex Wood

Offensive Coordinator/Wide Receivers
Iowa '79
First Season at Buffalo

Alex Wood begins his first season as offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Buffalo.

Wood brings with him over 30 years of experience at the Division I level and he has also served as a coordinator in the National Football League. He spent the past season as wide receivers coach at Miami University where he helped the RedHawks claim a Mid-American Conference championship a year removed from winning just one game.

His coaching career is highlighted by tremendous success at the highest levels of both college and professional football. From 1989-93 he was part of Dennis Erickson's staff for the Miami Hurricanes, coaching the running backs, while helping the Canes to a pair of National Championships (1989 and 1991) and a perfect 12-0 season in 1991.

Wood has also been a wide receiver coach in the NFL with the Cincinnati Bengals, a quarterback coach for the Minnesota Vikings and the offensive coordinator of the Arizona Cardinals.

After serving as offensive coordinator for two seasons at Wake Forest (1993-94), he was named as the head football coach at James Madison University. Wood led the Dukes to an 8-4 record in his first season including a trip to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. In his four-year tenure at JMU, Wood compiled a record of 23-22.

Wood moved into the pro ranks in 1999, when he was hired by Dennis Green as the quarterbacks coach of the Minnesota Vikings. He spent four seasons with the Vikings' organization. In his first year with the team, the Vikings selected Daunte Culpepper in the first round of the 1999 NFL Draft. By Culpepper's second season, the young star not only took over the starting quarterback job but earned a start for the National Football Conference (NFC) in the Pro Bowl. He tied for the NFL lead with 33 passing touchdowns and ranked second in the NFC with 3,937 yards. Culpepper led the Vikings to the NFC Central title and a spot in the conference championship game.

In 2001, Culpepper was lost to a season-ending injury but still managed to finish third in the NFC in completion percentage (64.2). The Culpepper-Wood combination was back at it again in 2002. Culpepper spearheaded the NFL's second-ranked offensive unit and in the process the Vikings' quarterback finished second in the NFC in passing yardage (3,853) for the second time in Wood's tenure.

Wood was named wide receivers coach by the Cincinnati Bengals in 2003. In his one year in Cincinnati, Wood coached two players in the top 10 of receiving yards in the AFC (Chad Johnson and Peter Warrick). Johnson led the AFC with 1,355 yards on 90 receptions. He also had 10 touchdown receptions.

In 2004, Wood rejoined Green on the staff of the Arizona Cardinals. Wood served one season as the offensive coordinator for the Cardinals, overseeing the offensive staff and handling play-calling responsibilities.

He spent the 2006-07 seasons as the passing game coordinator at the University of Arkansas and ultimately ended up back in the Midwest helping the RedHawks of Miami become the first team in Division I history to go from one victory to double digit wins.

Wood is a native of Massillon, Ohio, and was a standout football player and wrestler at Washington High School. He and his wife, Rosa, have three children--Jerrel, Alex and Natalie. His son Alex is the defensive coordinator at Wayne (NE) State College.

William Inge

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers
Iowa '96
Second Season at Buffalo

William Inge beigns his second season with the Bulls, serving as UB's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

The Bulls' defense flourished in his first season. The Bulls ranked 32nd in the nation in total defense and featured a pair of first-team All-MAC defensive backs in Davonte Shannon and Domonic Cook. Shannon finished his career with a school record 461 tackles. Buffalo ranked second in the MAC in pass defense in 2010.

He spent the last two seasons working with the linebackers coach at Cincinnati.

In each of his two seasons with the Bearcats, the top two tacklers on the team were linebackers. Prior to arriving at Cincinnati, Inge spent two seasons as the linebackers coach at San Diego State. While with the Aztecs, he mentored leading tackler Russell Allen to All-Mountain West Conference honors.

In 2005, Inge was the defensive line coach at Colorado where he helped lead the Buffaloes to the Big 12 North Division title and advance to the Big 12 championship game.

In 2001, Inge was hired as a defensive assistant at Northern Iowa. Over his four seasons with the Panthers, he was elevated to co-defensive coordinator and special teams coordinator. Inge was a four-year letterwinner at Iowa where he earned a bachelor's and master's degree.

Inge lists winning the outright Big East Championship as the proudest moment in his professional career. He lists his hobbies as drag racing, hunting, camping, fishing and reading.

He believes the University at Buffalo is a great atmosphere for higher learning, athletic development and competition and social development. The motto that reflects his life is "Don't quit and never settle for anything but the best."

He and his wife Rae have four children, Taelor, Isaiah, Keara and Raya.

Ernest Jones

Associate Head Coach/Cornerbacks
Alcorn State '95
Second Season at Buffalo

Ernest Jones enters his second season as UB's Associate Head Coach and coaches the Bulls' cornerbacks. He also serves as recruiting coordinator for the Bulls and oversee the "Bulls in the Community" program.

In his first season, Jones coached a secondary that helped Buffalo rank second in the MAC in pass defense. Josh Thomas had a steller senior campaign and was invited to the NFL Combine.

He was the director of player services and running backs coach at Cincinnati in 2009 after spending the 2008 season at Alcorn State.

Jones was the running backs coach at Cincinnati in 2007 as well as two seasons at Central Michigan. He helped develop a Central Michigan rushing attack that averaged 127.9 yards per game.

Jones also had coaching stints at Concordia, Kentucky State and Oberlin. He is a 1995 graduate of Alcorn State and earned a master's degree from Concordia in 2002.

Jones is an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity. He enjoys reading, basketball and working out. The proudest moment of his professional life is being able to impact the lives of others. He says that UB offers "the opportunity to get a great degree and play athletics while coaching players who love football."

He and his wife Kimberly have two children (Kgai and Myles).

Jappy Oliver

Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line
Purdue '78
First Season at Buffalo

Jappy Oliver enters his second season as defensive line coach. In his first season, he coached a defensive line that had 23.5 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks.

Oliver came to Buffalo after spending four years at Notre Dame as the Irish defensive line coach and boasts over 30 years of collegiate coaching experience.

From 2005-08, Oliver helped the growth of Irish defensive ends Victor Abiamiri and Chris Frome as well as defensive tackles Derek Landri and Trevor Laws. Abiamiri was a second-round pick in the 2007 NFL draft by the Philadelphia Eagles, while Landri was chosen that same year in the fifth round by the Jacksonville Jaguars. Laws was drafted by the Eagles in the second round of the 2008 draft and became the earliest Irish defensive tackle selected since Bryant Young was taken in the first round 14 years earlier. Frome was signed the day after the '07 draft as an undrafted free agent by the Chicago Bears and went to camp with the then-defending NFC champions. Oliver will also serve as the team's pro liaison.

Oliver spent 2003-04 as defensive line coach under former Irish head coach Lou Holtz at South Carolina, teaming with former Irish defensive coordinator Rick Minter to achieve a noteworthy turnaround on the defensive side in 2004 as the Gamecocks finished with a national ranking of 20th in total defense (315.18 yards per game).

Oliver previously served on the staff of Air Force's Fisher DeBerry for eight seasons from 1995 through 2002, helping the Falcons to five postseason bowl appearances including wins in the Oahu Bowl (1998) and the Silicon Valley Bowl (2000).

Oliver was a standout athlete at Southwestern High School in Flint, Mich., earning all-city and all-district accolades in both football and basketball. He was the city's athlete of the year in 1973 and captained teams in football, basketball and baseball.

He has one daughter, Candace, and a son, Justin.

Adam Shorter

Offensive Line/Run Game Coordinator
Cincinnati '04
First Season at Buffalo

Adam Shorter begins his second season coaching the offensive linemen. He is also the Bulls' run game coordinator.

He served in the same position at Delaware State in 2009.

He spent 2008 at Alcorn State, where he was in charge of the offensive line and tight ends. While with the Braves, Shorter was instrumental in the success of 2008 All-Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) offensive lineman Bronson Carvalho.

Shorter began his coaching career as a graduate assistant with the University of Cincinnati (2005-2007). Shorter was a four-year letterman at Cincinnati, where he was the team's starting center. He was the recipient of the John Pease Award as the Bearcats most outstanding offensive lineman as a senior. Shorter appeared in three of Cincinnati's four bowl appearances during his tenure. He earned a bachelor's degree in integrated social studies in secondary education in 2004.

Shorter, who serves as UB's equiptment room liaison, acknowledges the contributions to both Mark Dantonio's and Brian Kelly's staff at Cincinnati as the program developed into a perennial top 20 team as his proudest accomplishment of his professional life.

As well as his role in the development of his players character and competitive greatness which he hopes carries through out their lives. . His hobbies are enjoying the outdoors, movies and spending time with family.

Don Patterson

Quarterbacks Coach
Army '73
First Season at Buffalo

Don Patterson begins his first season as quarterbacks coach at Buffalo.

Patterson has a long and decorated coaching career, including tremendous success as a head coach at the Football Championship Series (FCS) level with Western Illinois. Patterson spent 10 seasons at Western Illinois, compiling a 62-45 overall record before illness forced him to step away from coaching for a year.

Patterson led the Leathernecks to three playoff berths, a pair of Gateway Football Conference titles and a No. 1 national ranking during his tenure. In his decade as head coach, Patterson produced 108 all-conference honorees, 34 academic all-conference selections, 59 All-Americans, including two consensus all-Americans, and two academic All-Americans.

Patterson came to Western Illinois after a 20-year run with famed Iowa head coach Hayden Fry, part of a coaching tree that includes Wisconsin's Bret Bielema, Iowa's Kirk Ferentz, Oklahoma's Bob Stoops and Arizona's Mike Stoops.

During his tenure at Iowa, the Hawkeyes appeared in 14 bowl games, including three Rose Bowls. The 1985 Iowa team was ranked No. 1 in the nation for five weeks, en route to a school-record 10 wins.

Under Patterson's guidance, the Iowa offense was explosive, leading the Big Ten in rushing (217.0 yards/game) and scoring (34.3 points/game) while finishing second in pass efficiency in 1997. Iowa finished the 1997 campaign ranked eighth in the nation in rushing offense and ninth in scoring, and had its highest pass efficiency ranking of any Iowa team since 1985.

Patterson was instrumental in Iowa's success, making the Hawkeyes one of only three Big Ten teams (also Ohio State and Michigan) to play in 14 bowl games during his tenure. Iowa appeared in the Rose Bowl after the 1981, 1985 and 1990 seasons, and made eight consecutive bowl appearances from 1981-88. The success of the Hawkeyes was immediate upon Patterson's arrival with Fry, evidenced by a Rose Bowl berth in their third season (1981), which was Iowa's first Rose Bowl appearance since 1958. Iowa ranked third among Big Ten teams in victories from 1979-98, and was one of three Big Ten teams to win more than 100 games between 1984-98.

From 1979-98 the Hawkeyes produced 38 first-team all-Big Ten selections, as well as six special teams first-teamers. Six Hawkeyes were first round NFL draft picks while five others were chosen in the second round and seven more in the third. Patterson directly coached five of Iowa's top seven career receivers, with the other two playing during his time. Prior to being named offensive coordinator, Patterson coached the Iowa tight ends - two of which, Marv Cook and Jonathan Hayes, enjoyed lengthy NFL careers.

Patterson was the last member of Fry's original Hawkeye staff. His association with Fry began in 1978 as an assistant at North Texas State coaching the defensive secondary. He joined Fry, serving in the same capacity, at Iowa in 1979. He served as recruiting coordinator in 1980 before coaching tight ends in 1981, a segment he coached until he began instructing quarterbacks and receivers in 1989.

The 1973 West Point graduate served on the cadet honor committee and was named to the highest-ranking cadet staff while at the Academy. He and his wife, Lisa, have a daughter, Brooke, who earned her doctorate in pharmacy from Purdue University.

Marty Spieler

Tight Ends/Co-Special Teams Coordinator
Allegheny '04
Second Season at Buffalo

Marty Spieler begins his second season coaching the tight ends and serving as special teams coordinator. in his first season he coached punt returner Terrell Jackson to an All-MAC First Team selection.

Prior to coming to Buffalo, Spieler spent three seasons as an assistant at Cincinnati. He worked under coach Quinn handling extensive duties with practice and game plans and spent the spring of 2008 as the tight ends coach.

Prior to Cincinnati, Spieler spent one season as the offensive tackles and tight ends coach at Allegheny College - his alma mater. He also served as a graduate assistant at Georgia Southern.

He enjoys golf and lists earning his masters degree as the proudest moment of his personal life. The statement he feels reflects his life is "to become a success, fight one more round." He feels that UB offers "the opportunity to promote an atmosphere that our plays will succeed academically, athletically and socially."

Marty and his wife, Angela, have a son, Bryce.

Mike Dietzel

Safeties/Co-Special Teams Coordinator
Otterbein '85
Second Season at Buffalo

Mike Dietzel returns for his second season at Buffalo after coaching three first-team All-MAC players last year. Safeties Davonte Shannon and Domonic Cook as well as punt returner Terrell Jackson earned the conference recognition in 2010.

Dietzel brought 24 years of coaching experience to Buffalo. He spent the previous seven years as a defensive coach at Western Kentucky, including three seasons as the Hilltoppers' defensive coordinator. His efforts helped the Hilltoppers finish 16th in the country in 2006 in pass defense while leading the Gateway Football Conference in that category as well as total defense. He also helped WKU post a 7-5 record in 2007, their first season in Division I-A football.

Dietzel has some familiarity with the MAC as he spent the 2001 and 2002 seasons as defensive coordinator at Kent State, including helping the Golden Flashes to their first winning season in 14 years in 2001.

He also spent seven years at Army, coaching running backs, wide receivers and tight ends during his time there. He was part of the 1996 staff that helped the Cadets go 10-2, the most wins in Army history.

He has also had coaching stints at Colorado, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Johns Hopkins and Earlham.

A 1985 graduate of Otterbein with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education, Dietzel lettered four years, starting three, as a defensive back for the Cardinals. The native of Sharon, PA was selected honorable mention All-Ohio Athletic Conference as a senior.

The motto that reflects his life is "quality is never an accident. It is always the result of intelligent effort and willpower. "

He enjoys fishing and golfing and the proudest moment of his professional life was winning the Commander-in-Chief trophy at Army by defeating Navy in 1996.

He and his wife Jennifer have a son, Taylor.

Matt Simon

Running Backs
Eastern New Mexico '76
First Season at Buffalo

Matt Simon enters his first season as runing backs coach. He brings a tremendous resume built upon 11 years of coaching in the National Football League and 18 years at the collegiate level, including serving as the head coach at the University of North Texas for three seasons.

Simon began his coaching career at the University of Washington, serving under head coach Don James from 1981-92, a tenure that was highlighted when the Huskies claimed a share of the national championship in 1991. He coached three All-Americans at UW, including running backs Greg Lewis and Napoleon Kaufman.

He would go on to serve as offensive coordinator at New Mexico from 1992-94 where his offenses ranked 18th and 10th nationally in his two seasons. He would then be named head coach at the University of North Texas, where in his first season he would lead the Mean Green to the Southland Conference title and earn Conference and AFCA Region 4 Coach of the Year honors.

After interning for one season with the Denver Broncos in 1998, Simon was named running backs coach with the Baltimore Ravens, where he contributed to tremendous success by the franchise, including helping the Ravens earn a Super Bowl title in 2000. He also helped lead Baltimore to playoff berths in 2001 and 2003, when the Ravens claimed their first AFC North title. With Baltimore he would coach Pro Bowler Jamal Lewis, who in 2003 under Simon's tutelage, would post the second-highest rushing total in NFL history when he rushed for 2,066 yards and scored 14 touchdowns.

His success with running backs would continue when he spent the 2007-08 seasons with the San Diego Chargers. There he would help LaDainian Tomlinson to his second NFL rushing title, while fumbling just once, and also tutored Pro Bowl fullback Lorenzo Neal and Darren Sproles, who would earn a Pro Bowl alternate invite as a return specialist.

He has spent the past two years as a professional football consultant and head coach at Gilmour Academy in Gates Mills, OH. He has worked with several players to prepare them for the Senior Bowl, NFL combine and NFL draft, including Detroit Lions 2010 first-round selection Jahvid Best.

Abingdon, MD/DeMatha Catholic

Dominating defensive lineman who was ranked as the second best defensive tackle and the 14th best overall player in state of Maryland by Rivals.com…earned three letters and served as captain for coach Bill McGregor at DeMatha Catholic, recording 13 sacks his senior season…ranked the #78 defensive line prospect by ESPN… also lettered in track and field…plans on studying International Business at UB, which along with the coaching staff, is why he chose Buffalo over offers from schools from the Big Ten, ACC, Big East and Conference USA.

Fred Russ
Defensive Lineman
6-4 • 245
New York Mills, NY/
New York Mills

A first-team all-state selection in football after leading New York Mills to a league title last fall for head coach Anthony Ricco...as a tight end he led the team with 25 receptions for 356 yards (14.2 yards per catch) and seven touchdowns and paced the team with 67 solo tackles as middle linebacker...he also handed the placekicking and punting duties for to Marauders... named the New York State Sports Writer's Association Class D Player of the Year in the Empire State after leading his basketball team to a perfect 24-0 record and its first NYS championship since 1982.

Trevor Sales
Offensive Lineman
6-2 • 315
La Porte, IN/
La Porte/Delaware State

A transfer from Delaware State who redshirted in his first season with the Hornets... named All-Indiana First Team and was an all-conference selection... was a "National Underclassman Strong Man" award recipient ... according to ESPN.com, Sales "is a fundamentally sound offensive lineman."

Brandon Tammaro
Linebacker
6-3 • 225
Plymouth, MI/
Detroit Central Catholic

Highly-rated prospect out of Michigan with a knack for making big plays…a first-team All-State, All-Detroit Metro and All-County selection after recording 58 tackles, 5.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and three pass breakups in his senior season…helped the Shamrocks of Detroit Central Catholic to a 9-3 record and a conference and district title…as a junior his team went 14-0 and won the Division I state title…ranked the #23 player in Michigan by ESPN, and the #30 Blue Chip in Michigan by the Detroit News…also earned two letters in basketball…chose Buffalo for the coaches, the academics and the facilities…his father Gary played at Pittsburgh.

Anthone Taylor
Running Back
5-10 • 209
Huber Heights, OH/Wayne HS

Thick, physical and speedy runner who earned four letters on a team that claimed two regional titles and advanced to the state championship game his senior season…recorded over 1,800 all-purpose yards (over 1,600 rushing) and scored more than 20 touchdowns in his senior season for coach Jay Minton…a first-team All-Conference and All-District special mention selection for the Warriors, where he also participated in basketball and bowling…chose Buffalo because of the family atmosphere and to help the program continue to rise.

Matthew Thomas-Quick
Defensive Back
5-11 • 165
Atlanta, GA/Westlake HS

Played cornerback and wide receiver for head coach Greg Minnis at Westlake High School - the same school that produced Heisman Trophy winner Cam Newton and NFL cornerback Adam "Pacman" Jones... earned team's Most Improved and Character Awards his senior season...also ran track at Westlake.

Matt Weiser
Tight End
6-5 • 240
Womelsdorf, PA/Conrad Weiser HS

Tall, sure-handed tight end who has been a three-sport standout in high school…had 54 receptions for over 1,000 yards and 11 touchdowns as a senior for coach Alan Meyer…a second-team All-State selection after being tabbed as receiver of the year for both his league and county…his team was inter-county champions in 2009 and 2010…rated the 62nd best tight end prospect in the nation by ESPN Recruiting…has also earned honors as a center on the basketball team and in the high jump and javelin events in track and field…chose Buffalo for the coaching staff and campus.

Ron Willoughby
Wide Receiver
6-4 • 190
Avon Lake, OH/Avon Lake HS

Lanky wide receiver who has starred on both the gridiron and hardwood at Avon Lake…earned five varsity letters and was twice captain for coach Dave Dlugosz for the Shoremen…set school records for most receptions in a game and most touchdowns in a playoff game (4)…had 54 receptions for nearly 900 yards as a senior to earn first-team All-County and All-District honors as well as being tabbed second-team All-Ohio…named the Lorain Morning Journal Player of the Year…helped his team to a pair of league titles…as a basketball standout, he was named the Lorain County Player of the Year as a junior and has set the school-record for points in a game with 46…chose Buffalo "because it felt like home."

BUFFALO, NY - The University at Buffalo football program was expected to be a quick-strike offense under new head coach Jeff Quinn's wide-open fast-breaking attack.

In the final few minutes of the first half against visiting Rhode Island, that offense was on full display as the Bulls turned a close game into a comfortable halftime lead and went on to defeat the Rams, 31-0 before 16,273 fans on a perfect September evening.

Buffalo led just 10-0 late in the first half when the Bulls' defense came up with the play that ignited the team and the UB Stadium faithful.

Sophomore defensive end Steven Means sacked and stripped the ball from Rhody quarterback Steve Probst with Terry Peden recovering at the Rams' 38-yard line.

It took just one play for the Bulls to take advantage of the momentum as quarterback Jerry Davis floated a perfect pass to a streaking Marcus Rivers for a 38-yard score. Rivers finished the game with career-highs in both receptions (10) and yards (155) in a breakout performance.

The UB defense then stuffed the Rams again, and Terrell Jackson returned a punt 17 yards to set UB up at the Rams' 46-yard line. After a pair of completions to Rivers for 21 yards, including a third-and-six conversion, Davis went up top to freshman wideout Alex Neutz for a 21-yard score to make it 24-0 at the half.

Sophomore quarterback Davis would make quite a debut as the Bulls' starter, throwing for 302 yards and four touchdowns. Neutz, in his first career start, finished with five receptions for 99 yards.

Not to be outdone, the UB defense allowed just 207 total yards and recorded the first shutout since the 2001 season. The UB defense had five sacks in the game and forced two turnovers.

Rivers, who had seven career catches coming into the game, put on an all-time performance with 10 catches for 155 yards, in just three quarters of action. His 10 catches match all-time great Naaman Roosevelt for the tenth-best in school history. Davis became just the sixth quarterback in UB history to throw for at least four touchdowns in a game.

The Bulls started the game with the ball, and after picking up a pair of first downs, saw the drive stall. Junior punter Jake Schum, on his first career punt, hit a beautiful 45-yard punt that was downed at the Rhode Island one-yard line.

The Bulls defense then forced Rhode Island to punt after three plays, taking back over at their own 35-yard line. That's when the Bulls' offense began to purr.

Junior wideout Marcus Rivers made an incredible one-handed grab for a first down, before sophomore quarterback Jerry Davis connected with Terrell Jackson for a nine-yard gain and another first down.

However, the Bulls were stopped inside the Rhody 20-yard line and senior placekicker A.J. Principe came on and booted a 31-yard field goal for UB's first points of the season. Buffalo led 3-0 with 8:22 left in the first quarter.

The Rams, however, started the next drive in great field position by virtue of a 39-yard kickoff return by Stanley Dunbar to the Bulls 47-yard line. The Rams would eventually drive to the Buffalo 10-yard line before the UB defense rose up. Defensive tackle Richie Smith dropped a Rhode Island rusher for a one-yard loss on first down, and after an incompletion, linebacker Imani Chatman snuffed out a pass play for one yard. On fourth down, the Rams muffed the snap on a field goal attempt with senior cornerback Josh Thomas dropping holder Tim Edger for an 11-yard loss.

The Bulls appeared ready to put more points on the board when before a turnover swapped the momentum. After picking up three first downs and driving in side the Rhody 30-yard line, the Bulls fumbled with the Rams' Daniel O'Connell scooping it up and returning it 44 yards.

Rhode Island drove inside the UB 10-yard line before Buffalo responded with a momentum-swinging play of their own. On second and goal, senior linebacker Raphael Akobundu tipped a pass that was intercepted by Thomas at his own two-yard line and returned to the UB 24-yard line.

From there, freshmen wide receiver Alex Neutz took over. Neutz caught a short pass, broke a tackle and went 35 yards to get the Bulls drive moving. He then made an incredible fully-stretched diving 31-yard catch to move the ball to the Rhode Island five-yard line. Davis would cap the drive with a five-yard touchdown toss to wideout Ed Young, his first career score. After the PAT Buffalo led 10-0 with 11:31 left in the half.

It would remain close until late in the second quarter, when the Bulls score two touchdowns in a span of 1:16 to take control of the game.

In the second half, the Bulls defense took over – putting constant pressure on the quarterback, while disrupting Rhode Island's passing game. The Rams averaged just 2.7 yards per play in the game, including just 62 yards on the ground.

The UB defense was paced by senior Justin Winters, who had eight tackles, a sack and two tackles for loss, while fellow linebacker Fred Branch added eight tackles. Means finished with 1.5 sacks and a pass breakup, while freshman Khalil Marck had three sacks, a half-sack, a quarterback hurry and broke up two passes. Imani Chatman added a career-high seven tackles for Buffalo, whose last shutout came in November of 2001 in a 44-0 win over Ohio at UB Stadium.

WACO, TX - Baylor quarterback Robert Griffin III is considered one of the most electrifying running quarterbacks in the nation. On Saturday night at Floyd Casey Stadium, Griffin III beat Buffalo with his arm before 40,853 fans.

Griffin III threw for 297 yards, passing for two touchdowns and running for a pair in leading the Bears to a 34-6 win over the Bulls. The loss dropped the Bulls to 1-1 on the season with UB hosting UCF next Saturday night at UB Stadium at 7 pm.

"We were simply not good enough," head coach Jeff Quinn said. "We felt that our week of preperation was where I wanted us to be and certainly there were some key mistakes that we made in this game. Obviously the turnovers cost us and they were able to capitalize."

The Bulls' offense was unable to get on track all night as Baylor took advantage of two first-half turnovers and converted them into 14 points. Buffalo had the ball inside the Baylor 40-yard line on five occasions but could only muster six points. Buffalo did get its ground game going after a tough outing in week one. UB ran for 180 yards on 35 carries. Freshman Brandon Oliver ran for 71 yards on 17 carries (4.2 average) while sophomore Jefvon Gill had 57 yards on just three carries.

However, Buffalo's passing game struggled, completing just 18-of-47 throws on the night. Terrell Jackson led the Bulls with six catches for 60 yards, while Marcus Rivers added six more catches – after 10 last week – for 53 yards.

After a punt following the Bulls' first possession, the Bears drove inside UB territory. However, on a third-and-nine play, senior Josh Thomas came up with huge play, separating the receiver from the ball on a play that would have gone to the Bulls' 25-yard line. The play was initially called a catch but after video review, was overturned.

The Bears opened the game's scoring midway through the first quarter. The Bears drove 49 yards on eight plays before the Buffalo defense rose up and forced a 30-yard field goal that was converted by Aaron Jones with 8:18 left on the clock, giving Baylor a 3-0 lead. It was the first points the Bulls have surrendered this year.

The first half momentum swung – while the Bulls' defense was doing an outstanding job containing the Bears' tremendous quarterback Robert Griffin III, when UB coughed the ball up at their own 40-yard line. Baylor was able to take advantage as Griffin III finished the drive on a five-yard run for the score on a fourth down play.

The Bulls offense awakened after a 38-yard kickoff return by junior Terrell Jackson, who had over 40 friends and family at the game, having grown up about 15 miles from Waco in Temple, TX. Aided by 19-yard run by Oliver and a personal foul penalty on the Bears, the Bulls got on the scoreboard. A.J. Principe booted through a 25-yard field goal to cap a 10-play, 55-yard drive that closed the gap to 10-3 with 13:05 left in the first half.

The Bears responded, however, with a big play of their own. On a busted coverage, Griffin III was able to hit Kendall Wright for a 61-yard score down the right sideline to increase the lead to 17-3 with 12:09 left in the second quarter.

After Griffin III hit Willie Jefferson on a 43-yard touchdown pass to the post – on another missed coverage the Bears had control of the game and a 24-3 lead.

Senior defensive back Domonic Cook was active in the secondary with an interception, a pass breakup and a fumble recovery, while fellow senior Davonte Shannon led Buffalo with 11 tackles, including 10 solo stops. Senior Sherrod Lott added five tackles, a tackle for loss, a forced fumble and two pass breakups.

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo saw a few crucial plays, and one long drive, spell the difference between victory and defeat in a 24-10 loss to visiting Central Florida on Saturday night.

The Knights (2-1) broke a 10-10 tie with a 15-play, 90-yard drive to score the go-ahead score midway through the fourth quarter, tacking on a late score for the final margin.

"We're obviously disappointed," said head coach Jeff Quinn. "Its certainly not what we expected tonight when we started this football game and the preparation after Baylor. I knew we had a real solid week of work, our kids were excited about playing this game and they continued to show me they care.

"They gave great effort but we need to get better, but it's not just on our players, but on me and our coaching staff," said Quinn.

The Bulls were stymied by some missed opportunities, driving inside the UCF 40-yard line on five occasions but mustering only 10 points. Quarterback Jerry Davis led the offense by throwing for 190 yards, including seven passes for 102 yards to junior receiver Marcus Rivers. Rivers went over 100 yards receiving for the second time this year.

The UB defense was excellent throughout the game, limiting UCF to a total of 288 yards. Senior safeties Davonte Shannon and Domonic Cook led the way with eight tackles each, while senior cornerback Josh Thomas had six tackles, including two for losses. Freshman linebacker Khalil Mack was a beast, contributing five tackles, a sack, 1.5 tackles for loss, breaking up two passes and adding a quarterback hurry, while senior linebacker Justin Winters had five tackles, a pass breakup and a hurry.

Trailing 10-3 at intermission, the Bulls tied the game on their first possession of the third quarter, driving 80 yards in 14 plays. Davis helped himself, by rushing for 17 yards on a third-and-eight play while converting three key connections through the air.

Davis hit Rivers twice for a combined 31 yards and capped the drive with a three-yard touchdown toss to Terrell Jackson in the back of the end zone. Another key play on the drive was a pass interference on third down in the end zone that kept the drive alive, in addition to freshmen tight end Jake Reeder recovering a UB fumble at the three-yard line just before the touchdown.

The Bulls had an opportunity to break the tie midway through the third quarter, driving to the UCF 30-yard line, before Principe missed a 47-yard field goal.

The game remained tied until the fourth quarter when the Knights broke through with a 90-yard drive that was punctuated with a 14-yard touchdown run by Ronnie Weaver with 9:53 remaining in the game. UCF's drive took 15 plays and the Knights converted three third downs and a fourth down along the way.

UCF struck first in the game, after a promising first drive by the Bulls was snuffed out over midfield by a sack.

The Knights drove 54 yards and connected on a 39-yard field goal by Nick Cottoi to take a 3-0 lead with 4:10 left in the first quarter. The drive took 7:06 off the clock.

Buffalo responded with a time-consuming drive of their own that started with a career-long 47-yard kickoff return by junior wideout Terrell Jackson – who finished with 134 all-purpose yards in the game.

Starting at their own 49-yard line, Davis engineered a drive that tied the game. The sophomore quarterback completed three-of-four passes for 39 yards, including a huge 17-yard completion to Marcus Rivers on third-and-15 to keep the drive alive.

The Bulls stalled inside the UCF 20-yard line and senior kicker A.J. Principe came in to boot a 27-yard field goal to tie the game at 3-3 with 11:57 remaining in the second quarter.

Buffalo's defense came up big on the next possession. After the Knights drove inside the Buffalo 40-yard line, Buffalo stopped UCF short on third-and-six, on a gang tackle by Steven Means and Domonic Cook on a screen play. On fourth-and-four, UCF went for it and freshman linebacker Khalil Mack knocked down a pass to end the drive.

However, on the very next play, the pendulum of momentum swung back to UCF as Bruce Miller intercepted a shovel pass and returned it 30 yards for the go ahead score. Though the Bulls would tie the game, they would never be able to gain the lead the rest of the way.

EAST HARTFORD, CT – The University at Buffalo football team rebounded from an early 14-point deficit but could not continue the momentum in the second half in dropping a 45-21 decision to the Connecticut Huskies at Rentschler Field on Saturday.

The Huskies offense got untracked in the second half, as UConn broke a 14-14 halftime tie and used several big plays on both offense and special teams to pull away. The loss spoiled a career game for junior wide receiver Ed Young, who had a career-best three touchdown receptions in the game – from 60, one and seven yards out.

"Not the kind of outcome we expected," head coach Jeff Quinn said following the game. "Going into halftime tied, 14-14, I felt our kids were adjusted to the things UConn was doing. But then some big plays took place, turnovers, things that have been hampering us all year. It just wasn't our day but we're going to get this thing right."

The Huskies took control of the game early in the third quarter, notching a field goal on their opening drive of the half before quarterback Cory Endres, who replaced Zach Frazer at halftime, threw a 56-yard touchdown pass to Michael Smith to open up a 24-14 lead.

The Bulls would rally one more time after getting a critical turnover. Outside linebacker Justin Winters recovered a fumble by Endres at the UConn 10-yard line, setting up Young's third touchdown pass from Jerry Davis from seven yards out. That pulled the Bulls to within 24-21 with 7:48 left in the third but that was as close as Buffalo would get.

Things started badly for the Bulls when on the third play from scrimmage, quarterback Jerry Davis' screen pass for Terrell Jackson was deflected and intercepted by Jerome Junior, who returned it 27 yards for a touchdown. With just 1:26 gone in the game, Buffalo found itself trailing, 7-0.

The Huskies added to their lead on their first offensive possession, driving 80 yards in 10 plays with D.J. Shoemate going the final four yards to put UConn up 14-0 after the PAT. The key play in the drive was a third-and-11 reception of 17 yards by Michael Smith, on a pass thrown behind him, that kept the drive alive.

On their next possession, the Bulls drove to the UConn 38-yard line, courtesy of Davis connections of 20 yards to Marcus Rivers and 11 yards to Alex Neutz. However, on a fourth-and-two play, Davis was intercepted – again on a tipped ball – to end the drive.

Buffalo's defense – and in particular defensive end Steven Means – had several bright spots in the first half, recording two sacks and a quarterback pressure in the first quarter alone. It was the third time in Means' brief career he has had multiple sacks in a game. Buffalo allowed only 117 yards of total offense in the first half.

The Bulls got right back in the game early in the second quarter on a quick strike from Davis. After a pretty 13-yard completion to Terrell Jackson for a first down, the sophomore quarterback went up top and connected on a bomb with junior wideout Ed Young for 60 yards and a score. It was Young's longest reception of his career. After an A.J. Principe PAT, Buffalo trailed 14-7 with 12:49 left in the half.

The Bulls tied the game in the final minute of the half after a critical turnover. Cornerback Josh Thomas deflected a pass from UConn quarterback Zach Frazer and cornerback Davonte Shannon picked it off and returned it to the Huskies 20-yard line.

Davis made a clutch 13-yard hook-up with Rivers to move the Bulls inside the 10-yard line. From there, on third and goal, Davis connected with Young again for a one-yard touchdown pass that Young cradled just inside the sideline in the front right corner of the end zone. The teams went to halftime tied at 14-14.

BOWLING GREEN, OH - It must be something about Doyt Perry Stadium, because every time the Buffalo football team plays at Bowling Green the incredible seems to happen.

After a three-overtime loss in 2006 and an incredible double overtime win by the Bulls here in 2008 – which clinched the Mid-American Conference East title – Buffalo somehow survived with a 28-26 victory on Saturday after Bowling Green missed a 40-yard field goal on the final play of the game to allow the Bulls to survive.

It was justice for the Buffalo defense who played a tremendous game as UB outgained the Falcons by a whopping 441-176 yards and had 27 first downs compared to BG's 10. Nonetheless, UB (2-3, 1-0 in MAC play) nearly gave up a 28-13 lead in the fourth quarter as the Falcons scored on an 82-yard interception return and a 48-yard pass to cut the lead to two points.

Then after the Bulls' defense stopped the Falcons in the final two minutes – on an interception by senior Sherrod Lott – and it appeared Buffalo was en route to the win disaster nearly struck. On a second-and-eight play UB fumbled at its own 24-yard line and it appeared that the dominating performance may have gone for naught. But after the Falcons gained only two yards, and two Buffalo timeouts, BG kick Bryan Wright's 40-yard field goal fluttered wide right by a few feet and the Buffalo sideline erupted.

The Bulls' defense was relentless throughout the game, limiting BG's high-powered offense to a season-low 176 yards – BG had nearly 300 the week before at Michigan – and forced five turnovers.

The Bulls defense had a plethora of stars, none bigger than the safety combo of Domonic Cook and Davonte Shannon and freshman linebacker Khalil Mack. Cook had a forced fumble, broke up three passes and had an interception, while Shannon had five tackles, a pass breakup, an interception and a fumble recovery. Mack, the freshman phenom, had a team-high nine tackles (six solos), a sack, a forced fumble and four tackles for loss. Junior Richie Smith added six tackles, while defensive linemate Anel Montanez had five tackles and a half-sack.

Also of note was the play of senior cornerback Josh Thomas, who held Lamar Jorden, who came into the game second in the nation in receptions with 40, to just two receptions for 12 yards. Thomas finished the game with five tackles and broke up a pair of passes, one of which was intercepted by Shannon.

The Bulls quickly extended a 14-13 halftime lead to 28-13 as the UB offense came out rolling in the second half behind quarterback Jerry Davis. On the opening kickoff of the second half, freshman tight end Jake Reeder alertly caught a short kickoff and returned it 15 yards to the UB 49. It took Davis and the offense 10 plays to get in the end zone, with Davis connecting on a drive-extending throw of 16 yards on a third down play to flanker Terrell Jackson, before hitting Marcus Rivers from seven yards out for his second touchdown toss of the game.

After a three and out by Bowling Green, the UB offense went right back to work. Tailback Jeffvon Gill – 13 carries for 52 yards in the game – ripped off a 14-yard gain before Davis hit Reeder for a 25-yard gain. Davis capped the drive with a nine-yard strike in the back of the end zone to Jackson between two defenders. Jackson had a career-best 90 yards receiving on seven catches.

With Buffalo's defense dominating – UB forced Bowling Green into four straight three-and-out possessions to start the second half – it appeared like UB might cruise to the win. However, despite driving inside the BG 35-yard line twice more, the Bulls could not add to their lead and were forced to hold on to the final play of the game

In a wild first quarter, the Falcons found themselves with a 6-0 lead despite accumulating 21 yards of offense and no first downs. It occurred because of two costly turnovers by Buffalo that took away one scoring opportunity, while handing BG another.

Inside the five-yard line, after a 32-yard connection from Davis to Jackson, the Bulls fumbled near the goal line when quarterback Alex Dennison was hit on a running play. The Falcons recovered at the one-yard line and kept the Bulls off the scoreboard.

After forcing another Bowling Green punt, Davis was intercepted by BG's Lorenzi who returned the ball to the Bulls' five-yard line. One play later, tailback Jordan Hopgood found the end zone off of right tackle. The PAT was no good, and Bowling Green led 6-0 with 6:18 remaining in the first quarter.

The Bulls tied the game by virtue of another big defensive play. Outside linebacker Khalil Mack sacked BG quarterback Aaron Pankratz forcing a fumble that teammate Steven Means recovered at the BG 15-yard line. Buffalo took advantage of the opportunity, overcoming a holding call on a clutch third-and-six conversion from Davis to tailback Jeffvon Gill for eight yards. Senior tailback Ike Nduka finished the drive with a one-yard plunge, and after an A.J. Principe PAT, UB led 7-6 with 11:41 to go in the first half.

The Bulls' defense continued to be opportunistic later in the half. After a pair of BG first downs moved the ball into Buffalo territory, senior safeties Domonic Cook and Davonte Shannon combined for a turnover. Cook stripped Eugene Cooper, with Shannon falling on it at the Buffalo 37-yard line. Buffalo appeared poised to take advantage after a 25-yard connection from Davis to Marcus Rivers, but the drive stalled at the BG 17-yard line. Kicker A.J. Principe's 35-yard field goal was wide right and the game remained a one-point affair.

On the ensuing possession, the Falcons regained the lead on a 49-yard pass from Pankratz to Tyrone Pronty down the right hashmark with 3:37 remaining in the half.

Buffalo, however, had an important answer at the end of the half. Buffalo drove 65 yards in eight plays in just 3:08 to re-take the lead. Davis connected on all four passes on the drive for 46 yards, including a 24-yard rainbow in the right corner of the end zone that was hauled in by freshman Alex Neutz.

The Bulls then stopped any late BG opportunity when Cook intercepted his second pass of the season with under :15 to go in the half. Buffalo went to intermission with a 14-13 lead.

DEKALB, IL - Too many critical mistakes and a stout Northern Illinois defense spelled the difference as the Bulls dropped a 45-14 Mid-American Conference football game on Saturday afternoon before 21,230 fans at Huskie Stadium.

Buffalo committed two turnovers, had a punt blocked and was tackled deep in their own territory after a fumble on a punt in the game. That was too much for the UB defense to handle as the Huskies pulled away from a seven-point halftime lead for the win to improve to 5-2 and 3-0 in conference play. Buffalo fell to 2-4 and 1-1 in league play.

The Bulls defense, which was on the field for 45 plays in the first half alone, showed signs of fatigue in the second half as NIU scored on their first two possessions – a field goal and two-yard touchdown by Chad Spann – to open up a 31-14 lead and the Huskies had control from there.

Northern had a huge advantage in both time of possession and total plays (76-59) which wore down UB in the second half. Offensively, the Bulls struggled throughout the game, gaining a season-low 250 yards and completing just nine passes on the day.

Despite the loss, the UB defense made several key plays and stops, including forcing two interceptions, one that went for a score. Senior Davonte Shannon led the way with 14 tackles, while sophomore defensive end Steven Means recorded a career-high nine tackles and linebacker Raphael Akobundu added eight. Senior safety Domonic Cook had another outstanding game with seven tackles, including three for losses and the third interception of the season.

The Bulls defense, which came into the game ranked 25th in the nation in total defense, came up big on Northern's first possession. The Huskies took over at the UB 30-yard line after a short punt into a stiff breeze.

After moving the ball inside the UB 10-yard line, the UB defensive end duo of Jerry Housey and Steven Means through tailback Chad Spann for a two-yard loss on second down and senior cornerback Josh Thomas broke up a pass at the goal line on third down. NIU's kicker then missed a field goal to keep the game scoreless.

The Huskies got on the scoreboard early in the second quarter after a key special teams miscue by the Bulls. Punter Jacob Schum was tackled after bobbling a snap inside the UB 10-yard line. The Huskies took advantage when quarterback Chandler Harnish hit Landon Cox for a 10-yard touchdown on third and goal with 11:58 left in the first half.

Special teams continued to plague the Bulls as on the ensuing kickoff, the ball was bobbled and fallen at the UB 12-yard line. After three downs, Buffalo was forced to punt from its own end zone and had the kick blocked, rolling dead at the UB 20-yard line.

Amazingly, the UB defense stood up and stoned the Huskies again. Senior safety Domonic Cook threw Akeem Daniels for a two-yard loss and provided coverage on a third down incompletion. NIU was forced into a 25-yard field goal which they missed to keep the score 7-0.

Then the UB defense took matters into their own hands by scoring the Bulls' first points of the game. Linebacker Khalil Mack hit Harnish as he was attempting to throw and defensive end Gordon DuBois picked it off and ran 27 yards for his first career score. After the PAT, UB had tied it 7-7 with 7:32 to go in the second quarter.

On the ensuing possession, the Huskies drove to the UB 17-yard line, before Cook ended the drive with his third interception of the season in the end zone.

However, just two plays later, Buffalo would give the ball right back at its 30-yard line when Branden Oliver fumbled after picking up a first down.

That miscue set off a scoring explosion that saw 21 points scored in the final five minutes of the first half. NIU regained the lead when Harnish hit Willie Clark on a 25-yard touchdown in the right corner of the end zone.

On the next possession, Buffalo turned the ball over again, as Davis was intercepted and the ball was returned to the Bulls' five-yard line. Three plays later Chad Spann scored from one yard out to put the Huskies up 21-7 with 1:10 left.

However, the Bulls entered halftime with momentum after one of the longest scoring plays in UB's Mid-American Conference history. Davis faked an out pattern and went up top to Marcus Rivers for an 81-yard touchdown pass down the left sideline with just :31 left in the half. Buffalo went to intermission trailing, 21-14.

However, the powerful NIU offense proved too much and the Bulls' offense never did get untracked.

BUFFALO, NY - The very first play of the Bulls' Homecoming game against Temple was a harbinger of things to come.

Buffalo fumbled on the opening kickoff with the Owls recovering deep in Buffalo territory. Twenty-three yards later the Owls were in the end zone and on their way to a 42-0 victory over the Bulls before 13,371 fans at UB Stadium.

After winning their last three Homecoming games, Buffalo experienced a torturous first quarter, that saw them fall behind 21-0 and never threatened the Owls, who improved to 6-2 overall and 3-1 in the Mid-American Conference. Buffalo falls to 2-5 and 1-2 in the MAC.

It was the first time that Buffalo has been shut out at UB Stadium since Oct. 19, 2002 in a 49-0 loss to Miami (OH).

Buffalo started freshman quarterback Alex Zordich for the first time, but the Youngstown, OH native struggled behind significant pressure throughout the game, suffering five sacks while being intercepted three times. The Bulls ran for a season-low 63 yards in the game.

One of the highlights for the Bulls in the game was the play of senior defensive backs Davonte Shannon and Domonic Cook. Shannon had 14 total tackles – nine solos – making him just the third UB defender to record 400 tackles, and the first in the Division I-A era. Shannon now has 405 tackles in his brilliant career, behind only Craig Guest (1993-96) who had 455.

Cook, meanwhile, recorded a pair of interceptions in the contest, the first time that a Bulls player has recorded a pair of picks since teammate John Syty had two in the home opener versus UTEP in 2008. Cook now has a team-leading four interceptions on the season.

Senior linebacker Justin Winters recorded a season-high 11 tackles, while freshman Khalil Mack had a career-high 10 tackles. Defensive tackle Anel Montanez added seven tackles, including 2.5 tackles for loss.

Buffalo got another strong overall performance by junior flanker Terrell Jackson, who recorded five receptions for 48 yards, and had a career-long 58-yard punt return that set the Bulls up inside the 10-yard line in the fourth quarter.

However, summing up a difficult offensive game, the Bulls were stopped from denting the scoreboard as they turned the ball over on downs.

BUFFALO, NY - The University at Buffalo showed glimpses of breaking through, but the Miami RedHawks made the crucial plays when it counted and held on for a 21-9 win on a blustery day at UB Stadium before 12,786 fans.

Despite winning the turnover battle, 2-1, the Buffalo offense could not get untracked long enough to pull out the victory. True freshman quarterback Alex Zordich made some outstanding plays, completing 16-of-33 passes for 210 yards and scored his first collegiate touchdown. However, five sacks and failures on key fourth downs (0-for-3) kept the UB offense from denting the scoreboard further. Miami improved to 5-4 overall and 4-1 in conference play.

On a day that featured wind gusts of up to 40 MPH, Miami got the key points on a one-handed touchdown catch with just :22 left in the first half. It was the only points scored into the wind in the game.

The Bulls' defense turned in another solid effort, limiting Miami to 297 total yards and forcing a pair of interceptions by safeties Davonte Shannon and Domonic Cook. Cook's interception was his sixth of the season – and the fifth straight game he has forced a turnover, which leads the nation. He came into the game tied for first in the nation in interceptions.

Offensively, junior flanker Terrell Jackson had 72 yards receiving on seven catches, matching his career high in receptions. Marcus Rivers had three catches for 44 yards and Branden Oliver added two receptions for 52 yards.

Buffalo's first points of the game came with 4:08 remaining in the third quarter when senior kicker John Rachuna booted a 52-yard field goal, the longest of his career. The kick tied for the second longest in school history and the longest by a Bull since moving up to Division I-A. The drive covered 41 yards with the big play being a 34-yard pass from Zordich to fellow freshman Branden Oliver.

The Bulls defense grabbed the momentum with cornerback Sherrod Lott breaking up a third down pass to force a punt. Miami punter Zac Murphy then uncorked a six-yard punt that the wind rejected back to the Miami 33-yard line.

On Buffalo's next possession, after an 18-yard completion from Zordich to Oliver, the freshman quarterback did it himself, rushing 12 yards around left end, escorted by receiver Marcus Rivers, into the end zone for his first career score. The PAT kick was no good, however, and Buffalo trailed 14-9 with :56 left in the third quarter.

However, with the wind in the fourth quarter, Miami had another big play in the them. Dysert connected on a 40-yard pass to Chris Givens to the UB two-yard line and one plays later Thomas Merriweather scored to put Miami up by the winning final margin.

The Bulls had a golden opportunity to climb back into it on Miami's next possession. Cook intercepted Dystert at the Miami 39-yard line with 7:19 remaining. After moving to the Miami 15 – on an 11-yard run and a 13-yard pass to Mike Marr, Buffalo was stopped on four straight passes – two of them broken up in the end zone by Miami – before a sack on fourth down ended UB's hopes.

The RedHawks opened the scoring midway through the first quarter after taking advantage of the blustery conditions. Miami got a drive start at the Bulls' 45-yard line after a punt into the stiff breeze.

Quarterback Zak Dysert finished the 45-yard drive with a five-yard scoring pass to Nick Hartwell on a quick slant with 7:40 remaining in the first quarter.

As they have many times this season, the UB defense changed the momentum late in the first quarter. Shannon picked off a Dysert pass – his third pick of the season – and returned the ball 26 yards to the UB 41-yard line. The Bulls appeared ready to get on the scoreboard, as Zordich hit tight end Aaron Connacher on a 16-yard connection on third-and-six. However, the Bulls went for it on fourth-and-one at the Miami 25-yard line, but fell about an inch short and turned the ball over on downs on the first play of the second quarter.

Buffalo threatened again in the second quarter, but after a Zordich to Terrell Jackson 25-yard hook up moved the ball to the Miami 36-yard line, Zordich suffered back to back-to-back sacks that took UB out of field goal range.

Late in the second quarter, the Bulls saw a turnover change fortunes. After controlling the majority of play in the quarter, UB was hurt by a turnover when Zordich fumbled the ball near the sideline with Miami recovering at their own 46-yard line.

The RedHawks took advantage of the turnover when Dysert threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Harwell, who made a one-handed grab in the corner of the end zone with :22 left in the half.

It appeared that the Bulls had scored on the ensuing kickoff as Ed Young went down the right sideline 68 yards for a touchdown. However, replay showed Young to have stepped out of bounds at the Miami 45-yard line. After a 15-yard penalty against Miami, UB kicker A.J. Principe missed a 47-yard field goal on the last play of the half to leave Miami ahead at intermission 14-0.

ATHENS, OH - Slow starts have plagued the University at Buffalo football team all season. Thursday night followed the same script, as Buffalo fell behind 21-0 in the first half on the road at Ohio.

However, the Bulls never stopped fighting, narrowing the margin to as close as 27-17 early in the fourth quarter, but ultimately could not overcome the deficit in a 34-17 Mid-American Conference loss at Peden Stadium.

The difference in the game came down to several one-on-one plays where OU won a number of battles for touchdown throws, while the Bulls had several key drops in the contest.

Freshman quarterback Alex Zordich played a major role in the UB running game, which accounted for 171 total yards before sacks are subtracted. Zordich rushed for a career-best 59 yards in the game, a number hurt severely by four sacks for negative 46 yards.

While Zordich did damage with his feet, Ohio senior quarterback Boo Jackson hurt Buffalo with his arms and feet, throwing for a score, running for a score and catching a touchdown pass.

The Bulls' defense was paced by seniors Justin Winters and Davonte Shannon as well as sophomore Steven Means. Winters had a game-high 14 tackles while Shannon added 12 tackles, becoming the school record holder in solo tackles in the process. Shannon passed career tackles leader Craig Guest (1993-96) with five solo stops to give him 238 in his career. Shannon trails Guest on the all-time tackles chart by 32 tackles with three games left.

Means, meanwhile, had another outstanding game, racking up eight tackles, recovering a fumble and recording his first career interception in the first half.

Trailing 27-7 in the third quarter, the Bulls cut into the Ohio lead with a 34-yard field goal by A.J. Principe to cut the lead to 27-10 with 6:03 left in the third. It completed a drive that saw senior tailback Ike Nduka rip off a 12-yard run, while Zordich had a crucial 17-yard hookup with freshmen wideout Alex Neutz.

The score remained that way until early in the fourth quarter when sensational freshman linebacker Khalil Mack made another impact play. Mack sacked Jackson for a 10-yard loss, knocking the ball loose that Means recovered at the Ohio six-yard line.

Just one play later, Zordich ran off right guard untouched for the score to cut the lead to 27-17 with 12:10 left on the clock.

However, the Bobcats were able to retake control on a 71-yard, 10-play drive that saw Ohio convert a key third down and throw a 15-yard touchdown pass from Jackson to Terrence McRae on fourth-and-one that clinched the game.

The score became decidedly closer that it looked like it would be in the early going. The Bulls have yet to score a first quarter touchdown this season and Ohio rolled up 128 yards in the first quarter alone to seize control of the game from the outset.

The Bobcats took advantage of a miscue on the opening kickoff of the game, as Buffalo's kickoff sailed out of bounds, allowing OU to start at their own 40-yard line. Aided by a couple of big plays from quarterback Boo Jackson, including a 14-yard run on third-and-four, the Bobcats opening the scoring on a one-yard keeper by Jackson with 10:48 left in the opening quarter.

Buffalo's opening drive showed promise as well with Zordich running with tremendous will. The freshman quarterback had three carries for 27 yards, including a 15-yard run where he pushed the pile an additional eight yards. The drive eventually stalled at the Ohio 32-yard line, where John Rachuna attempted a 49-yard field goal that was wide left with 6:25 left on the clock in the first quarter.

The Bobcats extended their lead to 14-0 with some trickery. Backup quarterback Phil Bates took a pitchout and threw the ball back across the field go quarterback Boo Jackson for a 26-yard touchdown with 3:04 left in the first quarter.

The Bulls got on the board late in the second quarter on a drive led by Zordich. The freshman rushed for 21 yards on the drive, completed a 14-yard pass to Branden Oliver and capped the drive with a 17-yard touchdown toss to Marcus Rivers in the left corner of the end zone with 3:06 left in the half.

BUFFALO, NY – It was a lost evening at UB Stadium, as the Bulls lost their starting quarterback, four turnovers and the football game to visiting Ball State by a 20-3 score.

The Bulls led 3-0 when starting quarterback Alex Zordich was lost to a rib injury in the first quarter and Buffalo was outscored 20-0 from that point on in dropping to 2-8 on the season.

The Bulls struggled mightily offensively after Zordich's injury as backup Jerry Davis completed 5-of-16 passes for 39 yards. Buffalo was held to a season-low 144 yards of total offense.

Buffalo's defense had a season-high four players in double figures for tackles, led by senior safety Davonte Shannon, who recorded 15 tackles, including eight solos. It was Shannon's eighth game in his career where he recorded 15 or more tackles, and leaves him just 17 shy of tying the all-time school record for total tackles of 455 by Craig Guest (1993-96).

Senior linebacker Raphael Akobundu added 11 tackles and a pass breakup, linebacker Justin Winters added 10 tackles, as did senior cornerback Josh Thomas. Thomas added a sack, a forced fumble and 1.5 tackles for loss.

Winters' 10 tackles moved him into sole possession of ninth place with 283 total tackles.

Buffalo's only points opened the scoring as Zordich converted a pair of third downs. The freshman ran eight yards for a first down, then converted a third-and-five pass play to fellow frosh Alex Neutz for seven yards. Zordich converted a third-and-six with a six yard quarterback draw before being knocked out of the game on an 11-yard rush to the Ball State 32-yard line.

From there, senior kicker A.J. Principe drilled a 49-yard field goal, the longest of his record-breaking career, to give Buffalo a 3-0 lead with 3:06 left in the first quarter.

However, after that it was all Ball State. The Cardinals took the lead for good on the ensuing drive, converting a second-and-20 situation en route to Keith Wenning hitting a 32-yard pass play to Otis Brown for the go-ahead score.

Buffalo trailed 10-3 at halftime and Ball State took full control of the game on the first play of the second half. Davis scrambled to his right and after a five-yard pickup, was stripped by Ball State safety Sean Baker who returned the ball 26 yards for the back-breaking score to put the Cardinals up 17-3.

BUFFALO, NY – A powerful Eastern Michigan rushing attack spelled the difference in a game that came down to the final play as the Eagles held off Buffalo, 21-17 at UB Stadium.

The Eagles ran for 261 yards in controlling the clock for much of the game and never gave up the lead in holding on for the win.

Trailing 21-17 late in the fourth quarter, the UB defense forced a punt to get Buffalo the ball back with 1:14 to go. Quarterback Jerry Davis – who completed 20-of-32 passes for 222 yards and a pair of scores – led Buffalo from its own 22-yard line on a long potential game-winning drive.

Davis completed four passes to move UB to EMU 39-yard line before a Hail Mary on the game's final play fell incomplete in the back of the end zone.

"We're very disappointed in the outcome of the game but we battled our way through all the way to the last play of the game.," said head coach Jeff Quinn. "Obviously we're very disappointed for our seniors playing their last game here and we didn't have the outcome we wanted. There's not that many words that I can express to tell you how I feel for this football team but it's just not good enough and we're going to get it right."

Davis' favorite receiver on the day was freshman Alex Neutz, who recorded career highs in both receptions (seven) and receiving yards with 112. Neutz set up a pair of scores with a 33- and 47-yard catch in the game.

After trailing 14-10 at intermission, Buffalo fell behind 21-10 early in the third quarter when Dwayne Priest – who ran for 192 yards on 35 carries – bowled in from one yard out.

However, the Bulls rallied on the following series by driving 73 yards in nine plays, including the 47-yard hookup from Davis to Neutz, and capped it with a 14-yard touchdown pass from Davis to Ed Young. That cut the lead to 21-17 but the Eagles, behind the powerful running of Priest and quarterback Alex Gillett (16 carries for 56 yards), EMU was able to control the ball for much of the second half.

Once again, in his final game at UB Stadium, free safety Davonte Shannon had another enormous game for the Bulls. The Jeannette, PA native had 15 total tackles seven solos) and became the first UB defender in its Division I-A era to go over 100 tackles three times in a career. He is now just three tackles shy of breaking the school's career tackles record going into his final game at Akron next week. Shannon and fellow senior Sherrod Lott also recorded interceptions.

Freshman Khalil Mack added nine tackles – two for losses – and senior Jerry Housey tied a career high with seven tackles.

The Eagles used some trickeration on the first series of the game – running out of a punt formation to convert on fourth-and-three at their own 40. However, after reaching the Buffalo 40-yard line, Josh Copeland and Khalil Mack threw quarterback Alex Gillett for a three-yard loss to force a punt.

The Eagles opened the scoring after getting the benefit of a short field after a Bulls' punt. EMU drove 44 yards on five plays with tailback Dwayne Priest doing most of the damage. Priest had a 12-yard run on third-and-eight at the UB 14-yard line and then powered the final two yards for the touchdown with 13:36 left in the first half.

The Bulls tied the game when its offense began to make some big plays. Buffalo took possession at its own 25-yard line after an interception by senior Sherrod Lott. The Bulls got rolling on a 10-yard run by senior Ike Nduka. Jerry Davis then hit Marcus Rivers for an 11-yard pass, but the Bulls appeared to be in major trouble facing a second-and-25 at the UB 46-yard line. Davis, however, hit tailback Jeffvon Gill on a perfectly executed 26-yard completion on a screen pass to keep the drive alive.

Two plays later, Davis threw a rainbow to the left corner of the end zone that Rivers wrestled away from the EMU cornerback for a 28-yard touchdown catch. After the PAT by senior A.J. Principe, the game was tied at 7-7 with 7:35 left in the half.

The Eagles responded, however, starting on the next kickoff when they returned the ball to their own 49-yard line. From there, they traveled 51 yards on eight plays – including a crucial fourth-down conversion. Priest scored from one yard out to put EMU up 14-7 with 4:25 left.

Buffalo, however, got another score before the end of the half. Aided by an unsportsmanlike conduct call on the kickoff that gave Buffalo a drive start at its 41-yard line, the Bulls finished the half with a field goal.

The big play was a 33-yard pass from Davis to Alex Neutz and the drive was capped by a 30-yard field goal by Principe on the half's last play. The half finished with the Eagles leading 14-10.

AKRON, OH - The University at Buffalo senior class, which has done so much to raise the national profile of the Bulls' football program, nearly went out in storybook fashion at InfoCision Stadium on Saturday.

However, despite recovering an onside kick in the final two minutes and driving to the Akron 17-yard line, the Bulls fell by a 22-14 score before 5,216 fans as quarterback Jerry Davis was forced into a fumble with the Zips recovering in the final minute.

The Bulls had scored with 1:55 left when freshman receiver Alex Neutz scored his second touchdown of the game. Buffalo senior placekicker A.J. Principe then hit a perfect onside kick that the Bulls' Okoye Houston recovered at their own 38-yard line. Davis then hit tailback Jeffvon Gill for a 17-yard completion and Neutz for a 28-yard gain to set Buffalo up at the Zips 17-yard line. However, on first-and-10 Davis was stripped by linebacker Brian Wagner and the Zips recovered and were able to run out the clock and get their first win of the year.

Buffalo was led by senior tailback Ike Nduka in his final game in the Blue and White. Nduka finished with 86 yards on 22 carries and another 59 yards on three receptions. Defensively, senior free safety Davonte Shannon became the school's all-time leader in tackles, breaking a record that had stood for 14 years. With eight tackles, Shannon passed all-time great Craig Guest (1993-96) who had 455 tackles in his tremendous career. Shannon finished his record-breaking career with a school record 461 total tackles as well as first all-time in solo tackles with 258.

About Shannon's record, Quinn said, "Davonte has done a great job for us, he set the benchmark and it's a very special accomplishment because there have been so many great players that have played before him. It's a tribute to him and all the players he has played with that have allowed him to accomplish such a great honor."

After trailing 12-0 at halftime, the Bulls offense came to life after a key defensive play on Akron's first offensive series of the second half. Alex Allen was stripped by UB linebacker Justin Winters with fellow senior Josh Thomas recovering at the UB 17-yard line.

Buffalo then embarked on a 12-play, 83-yard drive to cut the Zips deficit to 12-7. Quarterback Jerry Davis completed all five of his passes on the drive, including a 19-yard pass to Ike Nduka on third-and-six and a six-yard pickup on fourth-and-one to Jimmy Gordon. The drive capper came on a 13-yard pass from Davis to Neutz. It was Neutz' third touchdown catch of the season and came with 3:31 left in the third quarter.

However, the Zips regained control of the game on the ensuing drive when Nicely hit two crucial passes. On third-and-10 from his own 42-yard line, Nicely hit Jalil Carter for 42 yards to the UB 16-yard line. Then on third-and-nine at the UB 15, Nicely hit Gary Pride for 15 yards in the left corner of the end zone to give Akron a 19-7 lead with 1:30 left in the third quarter.

The Zips added a 39-yard field goal with 10:45 remaining in the fourth quarter and appeared in complete control with a 22-7 lead and the ball in the final five minutes. However, freshman safety Okoye Houston threw tailback Alex Allen for a nine-yard loss at the Buffalo 28-yard line and the Zips ended up giving the ball up on downs with 2:44 remaining.

Davis wasted no time in taking Buffalo 71 yards in just four plays to put them right back in the game. Davis hit Nduka on a 35-yard screen pass, freshman tight end Jimmy Gordon down the middle for 18 and capped the drive with another scoring strike to Neutz from 18 yards out.

Davis finished the game 19-of-34 for 268 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Neutz finished with five receptions for 88 yards, while Gordon had career highs of five receptions and 54 yards after taking over for injured starter Mike Marr.

Defensively, senior linebacker Justin Winters led Buffalo with nine tackles in his final game – finishing his career among UB's top ten in both total tackles and solo stops.

MAC Freshman of the Year candidate Khalil Mack was active on Akron's first series. He made a tackle on Alex Allen for a short gain and hit quarterback Patrick Nicely just as he was releasing the ball to force a punt. The freshman finished with seven tackles (six solos), 1.5 tackles for loss and two pass breakups.

Buffalo's defense shone in the first half, despite Akron having outstanding field position with the wind advantage, Buffalo forced punts on the Zips' first four possessions.

The first big break of the game came in the final six minutes of the first half. Buffalo punter Jacob Schum had his punt blocked with the Zips recovering at the UB 19-yard line. Akron converted when Patrick Nicely hit Jalil Carter from eight yards out for the score. The PAT was missed and Akron led 6-0 with 4:20 left in the first half.

The Zips extended the lead after a miscue by the Buffalo offense. Marcus Rivers had a pass deflect off his fingers into the hands of safety Josh Richmond who returned it 23 yards to the UB 39-yard line Nicely would then hit Jeremy LaFrance for a 31-yard touchdown pass with :34 left in the half to send the Zips to halftime with 12-0 lead after another missed PAT kick.
